CORNS, LIKE A KISS?

ets-It" is the wonder of the corn-pestered d. Millions say so, because millions have it. That's what makes it the biggest as corn remedy on earth to-day. "Gets-been trying to get rid of,—take it right of "clean as a whistle." Apply it in 2 seconds,—put your stocking and shoe right over it,—nothing to stick, nothing to hurt. You needn't fuss with thick bandages that make a package out of your toe. No knives, razors and scissors, no tape, no trouble. It's simplicity itself, sure, quick, painless. Try it also for bunions and warts.

"Geta Fisher of East Concord had a narrow escape from serious injury while out hunting last Thursday with a friend Mr. Fisher wore lumberman's white rubbers and from a distance his companion took them for rabbits and fired. One shot entered his foot and was removed with considerable difficulty.

ABOUT THE STATE HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM

DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Gilson observed the 40th anniversary of their marriage at their home in East Burke Dec. 1.

John Currier died Dec. 5 at his home in Danville at the age of 91 years and seven months.

Mrs. Julia Dotey Morrill, who died recently at her home in Huntington, had reached the age of nearly 92 year.

Joseph Jery, sr., of Florence fell down stairs recently at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary Shum. He is 92 years old, in feeble health, and is suffering from the shock of the fall.

Glenn A. Wilkins of Morrisville has presented James M. Warner post, G. A. R., a beautiful gold headed cane to be carried by the oldest member of the post, and passed on. When the last one gone the cane is to be turned over to the trustees of the Centennial library for safe keeping.

Rev. Charles R. Vickery, pastor of the Baptist church in Stamford, is proving the success of combining business with the work of the ministry, being the village blacksmith in addition to his other duties. The church built him a shop on church property and with his sal-ary of $600, the use of the parsonage and the funds raised from his trade, he is able to live comfortably and happi-

Mrs. Armenia Richardson, who died Monday at the home of her son in Waterford, at the age of 90 years and 26 days, had made a remarkable history for herself. Her husband, Stephen Richardson, died 46 years ago, and for 30 years thereafter she managed their large farm alone. She was the last survivor of a family of nine children and was wonderfully well informed, having a mind clear and up-to-date on all pres-ent-day matters. She had almost unbroken good health till the time of her death, which was caused only by old age.
